What services are offered in the setting? Explain how these services support community integration and/or maximize autonomy.

This setting provides services as a licensed residential facility for groups or an assisted living facility. It is a 24-hour in-home service that provides assistance with basic self-care and activities of daily living, including homemaker services; personal care services; chore services; companion services; therapeutic social and recreational programming; medication oversight; and services to ensure safety, security and adequate supervision. This service is over and above the mandatory service provision required by regulation, which includes the provision of transportation to and from the facility to the hospital, a nursing facility, to routine medical appointments and for social outings organized by the facility. This service includes 24-hour in-home supervision to meet scheduled or unpredictable needs.

These services support community integration as it allows the recipients to remain in a community they feel comfortable with and that is known to them, also it allows the recipients to stay in contact with family and friends.

It maximizes autonomy as the recipients are able to live on their own with minimal help and only requires supervision.

What procedures are used to ensure recipients are able to participate in activities in the greater community according to their preferences and interests? How is staff trained to support individual choice?

Some of the procedures used by the Assisted Living facility staff to ensure that recipients are able to participate in activities in the community include: complete social history questionnaires for each recipient that can be used to create a service plan that addresses social/activity involvements. Staff is trained to support individual choice by reviewing these service plans.

Additionally, the Activity Director meets personally with each resident upon move-in to determine likes and dislikes for participation in specific activities. Also, the Assisted Living Facility appreciates input from family, friends or other people who have insight into the preferences of the residents. The Assisted Living facility schedules outings they think the recipients will enjoy. Many of the outing ideas come directly from the residents through our Town Hall meetings or informal chats with the Activity Director.
