Also included is a period of time and criteria under which applicants are prohibited from enrollment consideration. Some Authority citations found throughout the Chapter are relocated to the section titled “Authority.”

Additional grounds for termination and/or sanction of a provider are added, including the termination of Nevada Medicaid providers from Managed Care Organizations (MCOs); providers who have deactivated NPI numbers or outdated NPI data elements; convictions related to “any social services” participation; providers who sell, transfer, etc. a provider group in anticipation of a conviction/exclusion; providers who fail to timely report changes; and providers who do not submit to enhanced provider screening requirements.
