Only the portion the agreement specified as the applicant/recipient's will be counted in determining eligibility for Medicaid, UNLESS the spouse makes a portion of his/her resources available to the applicant/recipient. The portion made available to the applicant/recipient will be counted in determining eligibility for Medicaid. The regular SSI joint bank account procedures apply to the months of requested coverage prior to the effective date of the agreement.

Married persons who are living separate and apart from each other may petition the court to equally divide their total community resources, excluding income, between them. Only the portion the court order specifies as the applicant/recipient's will be counted in determining eligibility for Medicaid, UNLESS the spouse makes a portion of his/her resources available to the applicant/recipient. The portion made available to the applicant/recipient will be counted in determining eligibility for Medicaid. The regular SSI joint back account procedures apply to the months of requested coverage prior to the effective date of the agreement.
